

ART CANNOT EXIST IN A VACUUM

It Has To Be Seen And Heard. And That Takes Time And Money.

Art should be a shared experience. It's meant to be seen and heard. To be enjoyed by the public. But that takes leadership effort . . . and money. And the money must come not only from the public support at the box office, but the business community as well. At Hibernia we understand this principle, this cross-pollination of art and business, and we therefore continue to lend our support and cooperation to both.
